VICE MAYOR KENNETH KIRK hands Lt. Robert White a proclamation declaring the week of May 1-7 National Crime Prevention Week. The week is being observed by all branches of law enforcement throughout the country as well as in Palm Springs. The proclamation points out that "throughout the nation unlawful entry and burglary causes much loss of property and personal valuables and frequently results in bodily harm and points out that police agencies and private citizens can cooperate in utilizing many preventive measures to discourage and diminish the crime of burglary. SCHOOLS REVISE BOUNDARY LINES

In a two hour meeting last night, the Palm Springs Unified School Board District gave final approval to the proposed school attendance zone boundary changes for the coming year.

In the Katherine Finch school, attendance area, the northern boundary, dividing it from the Desert Hot Springs area, was moved from Highway 99 to the Whitewater Wash. The zone is bounded on the south by Alejo Road.

THE FRANCES Stevens school zone is bound on the north by East Alejo Road, on the west by Indian Avenue, on the south by East Ramon Road, and by Sunrise Way on the east.

Cahuilla school zone extends south of Alejo west of Indian Avenue and south of East Ramon Road to a point mid-way between Cerritos Road and Compadre Road on the north, and south of East Palm Canyon Drive. The East Palm Canyon line runs east on an extension that goes to El Cielo Road, and south on the extended line of South El Cielo, or the eastern side of the Araby tract. The Cathedral City school zone abuts Cahuilla on the east.

Survivors Tell Bombing of Plane

CARACAS, Venezuela, (UPI) — A crazed Russian who said he was a "space explorer" bombed a Venezuelan airliner Thursday and died in the crash with nine other passengers and crew members.

The Venezuelan Communications Ministry said the three survivors of the crash at Calabozo 100 miles southeast of Caracas, told how the Russian terrorized the cabin before pulling the pin on a hand grenade and throwing it against the wall.

A witness on the ground said the twin-engine American-built DC-3 exploded "like a thunder-clap" in the air and crashed.

NO MORE LIVELY or hard working campaign has been put on by two candidates than between the two men who vied for the important office last night.

ers in the district west of the airport bound by North El Cielo Road, East Alejo Road, Sunrise Way, and Ramon Road, will attend Katherine Finch School, and pupils for four through sixth grade will attend Cahuilla.

The Cielo Vista school will include children in the California Dream Homes area, and eastward to Outpost Estates and Thousand Palms. The area is bound by East Ramon Road to the airport, but then has to jog north to include the area which will be served by the planned Dream Homes school in Section 17.

THE DISTRICT extends west to the point midway between Compadre Road and Cerritos Road on Ramon, and southward against the Cahuilla district to East Palm Canyon Drive. It is joined on the south by the Cathedral City school district.

A map of the approved changes will be run in The Desert Sun in the near future.

Turkish Students Defy Menderes; Death Toll Rises in Crackdowns

Foreign Press Can't Watch Chessman Die

Attorney-General's Ruling Touches Off New Controversy

SAN QUENTIN, Calif. (UPI) — An announcement that foreign newsmen would not be allowed to witness the scheduled execution of Caryl Chessman, only three days away, threatened today to spark renewed foreign interest in the convict-author's 12-year duel with the gas chamber.

An Italian correspondent said his newspaper was willing to pool the costs of a court test with other foreign news media.

TWO OF CHESSMAN'S attorneys were to meet with the condemned Red Light Bandit today to discuss new steps in the effort to win him a ninth reprieve.

Warden Fred Dickson of San Quentin Prison said the ban was invoked under a ruling by the California attorney general's office that noncitizens could not witness executions.

LUCIO MANISCO of Il Messaggero, Rome, called the ban "a definite attempt to discriminate against the foreign press." He charged that someone was trying "to eliminate foreign interest in the Chessman case."

Foreign interest in the case of the hawk-faced convict had apparently fallen off sharply since he was granted his eighth stay of execution.

In the week before Gov. Edmund G. Brown granted the February reprieve, his office received nearly 1,000 letters and telegrams daily.

City Councilman Earle C. Strebe this week was appointed by vice mayor Kenneth Kirk as finance committee chairman on the council.

Fixtures Theft Reported Today

Rumwell, who was appointed to fill the vacancy left by the death of Florian Boyd, will be up for election to the board this year.

Funds Allocated For 1000 Palms Overpass Job

SACRAMENTO — The California Highway Commission allocated $235,000 of $2,071,250 to be spent in Southern California, for construction of an overpass for Ramon Road over the Southern Pacific tracks near Highway 99, and for grading and paving highway approaches four-tenths of a mile west of Thousand Palms.

Widening of 1.6 miles of highway between Long Beach and Los Alamitos boulevard in Orange county will cost a total of $912,000, with $267,250 allocated for 3 mile of four-lane divided highway on Katella Avenue and Willow Street in Long Beach.

The commission marked $62,000 for 3 mile of divided highway on Haven Avenue between 19th Street and Highland Avenue east of Up-weekly luncheon meeting of the $32,000 for 3.9 miles of two and four lane highway on Minot Avenue and Riverview Drive between Pedley and Highway 60 at Rubidoux.

A $275,000 project for re-construction and curve improvement on 3.3 miles of the San Jose-Santa Margarita mountain road near Santa Margarita was also approved.

Nikita Rejects West Proposal

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev has rejected in advance the West's principal summit conference pitch on Germany — a plebiscite in which the Communist East Germans could decide their own future.

His rejection came in the course of a long speech at Baku, in the Soviet republic of Azerbaijan earlier this week. But the full significance was lost in the spot news concentration on his renewed threat to impose another Berlin blockade.

CALIFORNIA CONTRACT CITIES began its first annual seminar at the Oasis Hotel here at 10:15 a.m., today, with a keynote recap by the evolution of contractual services to municipalities by Riverside County Administrator Robert T. Andersen, group, and Mayor Frank M. Bogart, Palm Springs.

TRUSTEES IN OKEH OF COLLEGE PLAN

PALM DESERT — Enthusiastic approval of a master plan for campus development was given last night by the board of trustees of the Coachella Valley Junior College District's "College of the Desert."

Meeting at its Palm Desert office, the College of the Deserts' board agreed upon the way the total campus would be used, and the location of all buildings.

ARCHITECTS WILL now begin work on special layouts for each building, guided by educational specifications which have been written.

Thoroughly pleased with the master plan is the Bureau of School Planning, State Department of Education, John Branigan, bureau supervisor in charge of field representatives, told the board last night.

Clark Testifies Didn't Get Payola

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Television disc jockey Dick Clark testified under oath today that he never accepted payola. But he admitted he knew that one of his record companies was dishing out payola to other disc jockeys and that he did nothing to stop it.

Clark also acknowledged that he had received gifts worth $4,400 and a $7,000 payment as a "royalty."

Contract Cities Open Conclave In Oasis Hotel

Robert T. Andersen, administrative officer for Riverside county and city administrator for the city of Lakewood from 1954-57, reviewed the history of contractual services for municipalities by county governments in the keynote address to the first annual seminar of the California Contract Cities organization in the Oasis Hotel today.

Andersen told the group that 2,842 contracts now exist between municipalities in 57 California counties, providing for services ranging from safety protection to assessment work.

LOOKING BACK on the work performed by the state legislature, county and city officials, and interested business leaders in the State of California from 1879 to 1934, we find a step by step recognition of the sound principles of voluntarily contracting with the central government agency to perform services and eliminate duplication of effort," Andersen said.

Andersen reported that legislative action in 1895 authorized city councils to transfer duties of city treasurer, city assessor and city collector to county officers. Further permissive legislation was passed in 1911 and subsequently, with major impetus to the consolidation of services by contract during the depression years of 1930-33.

Summit 'Scaled Down'

LONDON (UPI) — America's European Allies are reacting coolly to the idea of using Vice President Richard Nixon as a substitute at next month's summit meeting in Paris should President Eisenhower be called away.

The British and French governments so far have withheld any official comment on Eisenhower's stand-in plan.

PRIVATELY, HOWEVER, Western European officials admitted they were disturbed by the American President's surprise announcement. They said it could put a crimp in the summit talks by making Russia feel the meeting was being "scaled down" in importance by the United States.

Menderes Vows 'Swift Punishment'

14 Persons Killed In Two Days of Turkish Rioting

ISTANBUL (UPI) — Anti-government students battled police in the streets of Turkey's major cities for the second day today and Premier Adnan Menderes promised "swift punishment" for those responsible.

Fourteen persons have been reported killed in two days.

THE HEAVIEST fighting was reported in the Turkish capital of Ankara. Three students were reported killed there today when police fired into their midst in a wild melee outside Ankara University that resembled the anti-government riots in Korea.

Thirty persons were reported injured today in the Ankara riots which began when students armed with chair legs and pieces of broken desks charged out of the Ankara University compound and fired warning shots.

WITNESSES SAID many students were seen carried away in ambulances, and that many students were bleeding profusely. Scores of others were rounded up by police. Menderes said "many of the culprits have been caught and we have begun to apprehend and establish the identity of others."

The rioting in Istanbul today involved several hundred students who battled police in defiance of martial law and finally were subdued with tear gas. Another 3,000 students were surrounded inside Istanbul University by heavily armed troops.

BOTH RIOTS BEGAN when students met to observe a minute of silence in memory of those who were killed Thursday.

Menderes, Turkish strongman, issued a statement promising swift punishment for the small group of "certain partisans" he said caused the two days of rioting.

"Those partisans will soon understand what it is to go against the power of the state," he said.

STEINBERG IN WASHINGTON TO TESTIFY ON INCOME ACT

Testifying this week before the Washington, D. C. in behalf of the Family Farm Income Act of 1960 will be Lionel Steinberg of Palm Springs, a farmer.

The bill was introduced by Congressmen H. Poage of Texas, B. F. Fisk of California and 14 other democratic congressmen, Steinberg said.

THE PURPOSE OF the bill is to reduce the cost of the farm program on taxpayers and to raise the income of the American farmer, Steinberg said.

Income of the American farmer for 1959 hit the lowest level since 1939 — $960 per capita while non-farm income was $2,200, Steinberg said. He added the figures were reported by the United States Department of Agriculture.

THE BILL WOULD reduce cost of farm products and restore the income of the American farmer, Steinberg said.

Also, the bill provides for farmers to vote in establishing a national marketing orders and marketing agreement program to reduce surpluses, Steinberg said.

Processive es come from machinery which the bill sets up for when the Secretary of Agriculture call for votes by growers, Steinberg said.

STEINBERG WILL present a statement favoring the bill and will cite the success of 33 marketing orders and agreements now in effect on some 33 commodities in California.

"I feel national marketing orders would succeed," Steinberg said.

A marketing order is where the grower of a crop place certain restrictions upon himself as to quality and quantity and other steps as far as shipment of products is concerned, Steinberg said.

STEINBERG A COACHELLA Valley farmer for many years, said that $500,000,000 of fund would be provided for distribution of surplus foods to residents of the United States when in need under provisions of the bill.

A member of the California Board of Agriculture, Steinberg spoke last night to the Beverly Hills American Legion on farm problems.

Steinberg is also State vice chairman of the Democratic Party.

Thirty-one Southern California newspapers, including The Desert Sun are participating in an intensive campaign to help raise $10 million to carry on the Radio Free Europe broadcasts to captive nations behind the Iron Curtain.

According to Robert L. Minckler, senior vice president of Mobil Oil Company and Southern California Chairman for Crusade for Freedom, this effort is in support of a nationwide program of saturation broadcasts by the radio and television industry from April 24 through May 8.

"You may send your money to the local postmaster or to one of the participating newspapers," said Minckler. "But, please make a contribution before May 8 to help Radio Free Europe fight communism in Western Europe."

The De Gaulle I Know

PORTLAND, MAINE — On a hot Paris July day in 1957 we watched General De Gaulle gracefully lean over and lay a wreath on the tomb of the unknown soldier in front of the ever-burning flame under the Arc de Triomphe.

An elderly Frenchman standing by me leaned over and whispered, "My friend, some day all France will call on him."

IN A LITTLE MORE than a year later the call came in the middle of the night, when a knock was heard on the door of an old chateau in the sleepy village of Colombey-les-Deux-Eglises, 140 miles southeast of Paris. An army courier had come to General Charles de Gaulle to call on him to save France.

People who live alongside General Charles de Gaulle in his favorite Colombey tell me they hardly know him, he is so aloof.

OFFICERS WHO served him in two major wars had little chance to appraise him... he was never around. In his native Lille, as a young man, he was known as the "cold asparagus," because of his extreme height and aloofness.

His personal and military conduct resembles that of General Douglas MacArthur, for we have known both men, and the similarity of their characteristics is uncanny.

BOTH ARE RUGGED individuals, extreme perfectionists, autocratic, uncompromising on principle and patriotic to the core of their make-up.

De Gaulle acts as though he was deluded by his own grandeur. Nothing is farther from the truth. Some of his political critics at home and abroad accuse him of egomania.

HE IS NOT an egotist... but a dedicated Frenchman, whose entire strength and passion have been devoted since youth to the glory of France. Everything else takes second place in the life of General De Gaulle.

The hero, who sustained his countrymen through daily broadcasts from London during the Nazi occupation of France with such gems as... "France lost a battle... not the war," returned to Paris in August, 1944, as the symbol of liberation. But the symbol was short-lived.

AFTER A FEW years France fell back into the same old drums of political indecision, corruption and easy living, induced in part by easy money from the U.S. By 1954, disgusted and disillusioned, General De Gaulle publicly denounced all political affiliations, admonishing his countrymen "for discarding the principles which pulled us out of the mud of war."

He retired to his towering stone home at Colombey to write his memoirs. But eye cataracts and political appointments kept him idle indoors for months at a time. His French maid reported that "Le grand Charlie plays bridge and 'reussite' (French solitaire) all day."

IN THE SUMMER of 1957 we saw De Gaulle emerge from political seclusion to frequent calls at the headquarters of the "Rally of the French People," on Rue de Solferino on the left bank. It was there that I last talked with De Gaulle in a press conference.

WHAT SURPRISED me was that among his visitors at that time were such political rivals as Communist Duclos and extremist Pierre Poujade. It was obvious De Gaulle was out to make political friends of everybody, for he needed everybody to fight the politicians in power. At this point, a year and a half before the French army returned him to power, his De Gaulle held less than 35 seats in the French assembly. One apparent change in the nature of De Gaulle was that he was willing to talk and listen to others... but on his terms and on the basis of his own political definitions.

GENERA DE GAULLE emerged from the sleepy village of Colombey to become president of the Fifth Republic, with a France sliding ominously toward civil war over Algeria.

The four-year Algerian-Moslem revolt had been draining France of her manpower and over a half billion dollars a year. France had slid back far from the surging prestige of space science.

THE CROSS CURRENTS of the French army were dangerously divided between Paris and Algiers. Tax corruption was deep into the fiber of the whole economy. U.S. aid had slowed up. All this and more faced De Gaulle.

Last summer in Paris, Socialist Guy Mollet said to us in a press conference: "France always expects miracles of De Gaulle... can he perform this one?" He did. De Gaulle came through again.

HE MADE EIGHT trips to Algiers and set up a plan for ultimate independence. He struck back at his old army friends who deserted him — and won. He set off an atom blast in the Sahara, putting the world on notice that France is in the space race as a first class power.

He put through sweeping economic monetary and tax reforms. He cut government costs... cut the budget... cut the deficit by half in six months. He increased France's ridiculous rent ceiling since World War I up to 25 per cent. He cleaned house around the loading judiciary. He eliminated useless office holders and raised the pay for those he kept.

IN ONE SHORT year President De Gaulle made Paris the new pivot of European allied affairs, heretofore in London. He shook NATO with bold demands for military equality and won his point. He put French goods back in the world market place by austerity, wage cuts and increased production.

He defied Russia and Communism within his country as no Frenchman dared in years. He ignored tradition by making Germany France's closest ally. De Gaulle did all this with a national card deck minus the aces.

"FRANCE," PRESIDENT De Gaulle said many times, "is at her best when she is fighting for her honor. There won't be another Dienbienphu as long as France is with me." Like France, De Gaulle is at his best in a crisis.

There is every sign that both East and West will always find him firm and faithful to the best interests of France, first. For there has not been anybody quite like him in France since Napoleon.

A plea to those Who'll soon depart, Don't leave your pets, Please have a heart.

It's that time of year again when many who spend the fall, winter and spring months here, will take off for summer homes. Most of them will stay through May, having discovered what a delightful month that is on the desert.

So this appeal should give them a full month to make all necessary arrangements.

When you go away, please do not abandon the pets you may have accumulated during your stay here.

BILL MUELLER, humane officer, says that every year at the start of the summer season when many homes are closed for several weeks, he has the same trouble.

Providing for stray dogs and cats people either forgot, didn't have room for or just callously ignored.

It provides an annual problem which could be taken care of easily by the people concerned — the owners.

JERRY CONLIN, who manages Bob Howard's new Sportsman's, at the corner of Andreas Road and Indian Avenue, claims to be the fastest man behind a bar in Palm Springs.

Conlin is accomplished in many land-bound sorts, too. Among his other achievements, he is one of the best roller-skaters in the neighborhood.

SO THE OTHER DAY when he was attending to his duties unaided and that long Sportsman's mahogany became overpopulated, he found himself hard put to answer speedily all of the calls for attention.

But he quickly solved that problem. Excusing himself briefly, he donned roller skates and quickly was back, rolling from one end of the room to the other with the greatest of ease and meeting all requests speedily.

CLIFF KELLY who operates the refreshment division of the Town and Country, in the Center is, as you might guess from the name, a son of the Auld Sod. But he claims that, unlike other Irishmen, he does not have a low boiling point.

But he was still simmering hours after an accident that happened to him one day last week.

AN OCCASIONAL CLIENT came in, ordered a noontime Martini and sat twirling the glass. Soon a pretty waitress from a lunch counter down the street came in and placed a sack before him. He paid her and opened the sack. Placed a sandwich before him and nonchalantly ate it.

"The nerve of that you know what!" sputtered Kelly. "The next time he does that I'm going to charge him a $5 cover charge for his drink and a $4 minimum!"

Says Ken Kraft: "The theory of gardening isn't so tough. It's getting down to earth that hurts."

STAN DELAPLANE:

Dance, Ballerina, Dance

Since a good many people have asked: "But what in the world do you do with your TIME on a river boat?" — I don't mind answering.

We rise at 6:30. (I'm Burlington Bertie. I rise at 6:30...)

We rise at 6:30 due to the whim of the Captain. Or perhaps it is the management of the Delta Queen, last of the Mississippi passenger boats.

AT 6:30 (AND sometimes 6:25) a passionate waiter - musician strides the decks with one of those chime affairs. He taps it briskly with a rubber hammer in a series of bugle calls.

"I can't get 'em up, I can't get 'em up, I can't get 'em up in the mo-o-rning!"

He plays "Reveille." He plays "Assembly." He plays "Pay Call" and "Mess Call." He plays everything but "Taps."

We rise at 6:30.

THE DELTA QUEEN carries 200 passengers on summer cruises. From Cincinnati to New Orleans, to St. Paul, to Chattanooga. On the Mississippi, the Ohio, the Tennessee, the Cumberland.

In the morning, we play bingo. I am the last of the Mississippi river gamblers and have won three cotton plantations and an undeveloped lot in Anaheim, Calif.

In the afternoon, we write postcards.

I AM TRAVELING with Jacques Lemoine, a friend from Paris. It is his first time in the interior of the U. S.

Do you know what a worldly Parisian does on a trip?

HE DOES JUST like the Americans do in Paris. He sits around writing postcards home. He carries a light meter and a camera. He wears dark glasses.

"Jacques, you're a typical tourist," I said.

He was insulted and did not speak to me for an hour. He sat and wrote more postcards instead.

AT NIGHT WE play games. Last night we had a masquerade. Three people appeared as Tom Sawyer — a popular character and an easy costume. (You just trim the bottom of a pair of blue jeans with pinkish scissors and wear a straw hat.) It seemed a good night to entertain. So we broke out a case of French wine.

IT WAS AN immediate success. The wine was chosen by our friend, Jean Lapuyade, who runs a French restaurant in San Francisco. He is a patriot.

When I told him I was taking a Commandeur of the ancient wine-tasting society of Burgundy across the States, he began making speeches to me. Starting with "Vive la France."

"WHAT KIND of wine will you serve?" he asked.

"Whatever is available. California Dewlups?"

M. Lapuyade struck himself on the forehead. He inquired of Heaven if this is what the Basille fell for. He consulted the wine catalogues and advised Haut Brion and Pouilly Fuisse.

M. LEMOINE and I had no costumes. We went as members of the Confrerie des Chevaliers du Tastevin.

I am a common Chevalier. My Commandeur outranks me like a fresh-striped corporal over a buck private. He made a patriotic speech on French wines. The passengers were impressed. Most of them soaked off the labels to paste in their scrapbooks of the voyage.

I SPILLED A little red on my white jacket. (However, I think it comes out with salt and cold water.)

The passengers cheered. And ladies who, that morning had shown me pictures of their grandchildren, got up and did the cha-cha-cha. Dressed as Tom Sawyer.

That is Life on the Mississippi. Unretouched. Unexpurgated. I'm glad you asked.

Having Busy Season

HOLLYWOOD — Bill Talman of the Perry Mason series, having been set to make a court appearance last Monday (April 25) for trial on allegedly participating in a nude Hollywood party, is having a busy season of it — OFF the TV screen! On top of his arrest and subsequent dismissal from the Mason show, his estranged wife, Barbara Reed, has called him to court for the divorce hearing May 20. Abby Dalton, the nurse in Jackie Cooper's Hennessey series, will trade her nurse's cap for a wedding veil this fall. The lucky groom-to-be is Jack Smith (not Smiling Jack, the singer, but a non-pro).

EXCERPTS FROM Dr. Tom Dooley's letters from the Kingdom of Laos to his friends are being TV-taped and radio-recorded by Irene Dunne, Loretta Young, Joe E. Brown and other stars. The letters tell about the hospitals Dr. Tom has built in Laos, facing smack up against the Red China border.

These TV and radio plugs are being used to push ticket sales for the California Interior Decorators' Show at the Hollywood Palladium on May 6, a benefit in behalf of the heroic young medic who was recently stricken by cancer. All receipts from same go NOT to my friend Tom himself, however, but to his MEDICO crusade to aid the ailing of Southeast Asia and Africa.

STAGE PRODUCER Fred De Gorter gandered the great Maria Schell in her Tventure into Greto Garbo's domain, "Ninotchka," and is grabbing for her to star in his new play, "Dust to Dust." I doubt if Miss Schell will do it. The part is a Nazi's daughter.

Conway Twitty is sitting pretty, thanks to the young rock-'n'-roller's several TV stands. He has a three-picture pact upcoming in MGM's kitty.

PAT O'BRIEN and his handsome family are getting all draped and shaped for Sunday (May 1), when they'll be Person-to-Person-taped.

Gene (Bat Masterson) Barry has rounded up his own troupe for his summer rodeo romp: A Cast of 43 — Count 'Em — 43.

Gustavo Rojo, his romance with Natalie Trundy kaput, wrapped up the pilot film of a new MGM-TV series, "Three Wishes, and roared off to Rome to co-star with Rossana Podesta in a movie, "Three Loves." I won't be surprised if his overseas stint also spells a reconciliation with his wife Erika Remberg.

She coincidentally, is also in Rome.

GEORGE JESSEL's report on his five-day night club stand Easter - AND - Passover Week at the Fontainebleau in Miami Beach: "I had good crowds, even though it was Holy Week and Passover Week. I swear it to you, just as I swore it to my ringsiders — they were all either Arabs or atheists!"

John Wayne is on an offbeat casting kick for "The Alaskans." He signed comedian Ernie Kovacs to play the top villain and recruited his second assistant villain, Ken Scott, from 20th-Fox's handsome - young - leading-man league.

Scott's own reconciliation try with his wife, Carol Brent, also seems to be slightly offbeat. Pretty Mrs. Scott returned to her husband's hearthside for a second stab at a successful marriage but insisted on staying in Ken's guest room. Then, when she did move out, "for once and for all," she promised to show up next day at the office of her better-half's barrister to ballpoint the settlement papers. She never did show. But confusing!

THE TITLES OF May Britt's last two pictures are somewhat ironic: "The Blue Angel" (a box-office flop) and now "Murder, Inc." Murder is right!

Anna Maria Alberghetti, magnetic and operatic, is pencilled in alongside Elvis Presley and Juliet Prowse for Sir Swivel's first post - Army picture, "GI Blues." With Elvis rockin' 'em, Anna Maria holding up the classical end, and Juliet tiptoeing some ballet bits, it would seem producer Hal Wallis is designing this one for assorted movie-going tastes. (Also spelled "box-office guarantee".)

MILTON BERLE urging Freddy Martin and the boys in the band to be his Cocomat Grove clique: "I wish you guys would laugh while onstage — it makes the customers start laughing too — besides, I've been standing backstage laughing at your music!"

Producer - director - star Mel Ferrer, still luring Liz Taylor to star in his Swiss-made "Nine Coaches Waiting," re-baited his hook by writing a part into the script for Eddie Fisher.

Jim Clavell cranked "Walk Like a Dragon" to a finish and started writing his next production chore, another Oriental theme titled "Rat Trap." This one has a different slant, however: it wraps up the producer's own World War II experiences as a prisoner of the Japanese.

SHIRLEY BOOTH and Leonard Sillman, producer of Miss Booth's latest Broadway flop, aren't speaking this season. "The Second String," it seems, wasn't even slated to suit the palates of the second-string aisle assassins. The enormously talented Miss Booth has probably had more stage flops than any other living actress. Besides acting ability, her talents include picking one poorly constructed play after another (check the records — you'll see I'm right).

Even when she has a hit, as in the case of "The Desk Set," it's because Shirley shoved it to hidom herself by sheer skill. Her "laughing bit" in the latter show is an example. It wasn't in the original script. She added it during the tryout... Aside to Shirley: Better start speaking to Leonard again, doll — he might start writing the second half of his life story and if you read his vitriolic verbiage about "stars he has known" in the first half ("Here Lies Leonard Sillman" you know what I mean!

Latest word from Washington, D. C., regarding a decision on the sale of El Mirador Hotel is that time has been extended to May 1 by General Services Administration to the two top bidders to "qualify themselves" financially.

Congressman John Phillips left last week for Washington, D. C., following a whirlwind speaking tour of this district.

A new 5 & 10 cent store is going into the furniture building on Palm Canyon opposite Village Pharmacy, it was reported here today.

Scarcely had the wind-swept flames which ravaged part of historic Palm Canyon last Sunday died away than Palm Springs took quick cognizance and found that while the damage was great it was not as complete and irreparable as first thought. Most of the several hundred gigantic palms swept by the blaze will live, and regain much of their unique attractiveness. Also destroyed was Palm Canyon Trading Post, with damage estimated at $50,000.

NEW YORK — People...

Places... Things...

The lights dim in the most incoherent man of the 20th century, Sir Winston Churchill. His quarrelling, roistering children — who grew up blinded by his brilliance — are a bleeding bother to him, friends say. His sudden attachment to Aristotle Onassis, whom he didn't know for the first 80 years of his life, is laid by some to the fact that the old man likes to wear his sea-going cap, and the size of Onassis yacht "Christina" makes him feel like an admiral.

An English newsman who was present at a recent dinner party which also included Sir Winston reports that the great old man sat slouched and silent through the entire meal and on through the evening. Only when he was leaving did he speak. An admirer whose sharp-edged ring had accidentally turned on his finger, shook hands warmly with his hero.

"Damn you, sir, you have wounded me," Sir Winston cried, and stomped out.

EDDIE ARCARO, probably the greatest jockey of all time, was set down for 10 days the other day. After one of his last hard-driving rides before his suspension period began, Eddie put in a foul claim against Bill Shoemaker. Little Bill is Eddie's best friend on the turf, and though he is the best rider of the present crop he looks up to Eddie as kids look up to Dempsey.

Toots Shor, their massive mutual admirer, called Arcaro when he got the word. "I know you put you in that phony foul claim against your pal Shoemaker," Toots charged. "Phony? You're nuts. He fouled me."

"G'wan," Toots said. "You wanted to get him set down, too, so you'd have somebody to play golf with."

AN OMINOUS silence has settled over a one-way correspondence we've been having for some time with an anti-Castro Cuban whose only signature on his letters from Havana is an intricate design done with a scissor.

The last note spoke of "The deep RED stain beneath his olive green uniform was quite apparent to those of us who saw from the start his almost diabolic ability to hypnotize people of good will and good faith. He has none, but the mask of perfidy is slowly falling from his countenance."

"For me," the note concluded, "as that lovely poem says, 'I have a rendezvous with death... at some disputed barricade when spring comes back with rustled shade.'"

REPORTERS WITH restless feet will find them stirring while reading a letter to the Overseas Press Club from news-ben member Carroll Colvin:

"Life in Anchorage has fascinating facets for a reporter. On a February day for 35 cents you can buy a bunch of daffodils airborne from Seattle, just as if you were six steps from Lexington Avenue in N.Y.C. But you can also stumble over a man's frozen corner where it has lain for a month in the icy brush just six steps from a downtown corner.

"On page two in the Anchorage Times you can read a call for tryouts for the amateur production of 'Look Back In Anger,' and that same day make (as I did) a forced landing and stumble across a trapper who looks at you with mouth ajar and says, 'You're the first human being I've seen in five months.'"

LOOKING FOR a lively stock in which to invest that $12 you have left after taxes?

Well, take a flyer on Jane Bualdasera, a pretty Astoria, N. Y., housewife who has an unusual ambition and would like to sell shares in the fortune that will come to her if she achieves it.

Jane wants to swim the English Channel this summer underwater.

Incredibly enough, Jane has remained underwater as many as 100 hours (that's going into five days) and she slept 18 of those hours submerged. She has swum 14 miles underwater at a clip. Gasp... gasp.

GAS FIRM BACKS BROWN PRICE LINE

Southern California Gas Company today welcomed Governor Brown's efforts to halt rising producer prices of natural gas and pledged support for his proposed conference to study the problem.

At hearings on the gas company's application for a rate increase, based largely on increased wholesale gas prices, Harry P. Letton, company vice president and general counsel, disclosed that he has accepted an invitation to serve on the Governor's Committee to Study the Problems of Natural Gas Supply and Distribution.

Letton also announced that the Southern California and Southern Counties Gas Cos. have sent a wire to the Governor in response to his call for a special conference of government and private experts in Sacramento.

The wire read: "SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA and Southern Counties Gas Cos. have, as you know, intervened in opposition before the Federal Power Commission on behalf of four customers."

"Our present applications before the California Public Utilities Commission for an increase in our rates are largely based on increased costs of out-of-state gas to us."

"Under the circumstances, we have no alternative but to pass on these increases."

GARDENING IN THE DESERT

Wildflowers Wane --But More to Come

Gradually we are seeing the last of this year's wildflowers. Where there is ample irrigation some poppy and verberna is still blooming, but, on the whole, we can say goodbye to them until next spring.

We can still look forward to ample colors which adorn desert trees and bushes, lavender, yellow, rose-purple, purple and red, to the deep indigo blue of the smoke tree. Among the yellows are creosote bush, palo verde, parkinsonia, perfume acacia, encelia, and Mojave broom.

The blooms of ocotillo and chuparosa are red, desert lavender and rock verberna are lavender, honey mesquite brings out a creamy yellow bloom.

IN ADDITION to these, there are many species of cacti which require little care but will surprise with grotesquely shaped and elegantly colored blooms in season. Keep the prickly cacti away from spots frequented by young children; plucking those tiny, thorny spikes from children's hands is no mean operation.

Most of the above are very economical in their water requirements and should be planted apart from flower beds and lawns where copious irrigation is the order of the day. When planting select impossible a permanent location; almost without exception these plants do not relish transplanting.

WE HAVE BEEN questioned as to the advisability of the use of Castorbean Meal as food for Dichondra or other lawns. Where there are young children and pets playing on a lawn it would be wise to avoid the use of Castorbean Meal especially if the mixture has not been raked into the lawn. Dichondra, Rye Grass or any other covering.

However, if the children and pets are kept away from the fertilizer until it has been thoroughly worked into the lawn and heavily irrigated, the poisoning possibility might be eradicated.

THE DECORATIVE Hollyhocks are almost in full bloom at present; some years they grow as high as 10 feet and the differing colors—from clear white through all the shades of pink to the deepest red—add much to the garden vista.

There is little difficulty in their growth and can be economically grown if, when this year's growth has ended and the stalks dry up, you have a friend or neighbor who will pass some seeds on to you there should be little difficulty in drying the seeds and, later in the year, putting them to work for next year's showing.

WE CAN ASSURE you that one long stalk, when it becomes dormant, will supply you with about 1,000 seeds. Of course, better and more varied results will accrue if a few pods from each color could be collected.

A prepared trench should be completed by the end of August containing at the bottom a layer of peat moss and leaf mold, and when the soil is spread, seeds should be planted about a quarter inch below the soil surface. A thin layer of peat moss on top will help against too rapid an evaporation. Mr. Amateur Gardener should have pride in growing his own Hollyhocks. —T.G.M.

ADDING INSECT REPELLANT SAVES OUTDOOR PAINT

Flies, gnats and other small insects are attracted to wet outside house paint. They stick to the surface, marring its appearance.

Adding two tablespoons of oil of citronella to each gallon of paint during mixing will repel them and protect the work.

The Institute is a unique growers' organization which presents the latest findings in date research at a yearly meeting. The talks given are carried later in the Institute Proceedings, and are offered for sale or provided free to each member.

The Institute this year will hear zation of date offshoots, the influence of drought on date quality, the effect of salt accumulations on Coachella Valley date gardens, and a round table discussion of the pros and cons of interplanting dates and citrus.

The public is invited to attend.

CAESAR SUCCUMBS TO 'VEGAS LURE.' HEADS FOR RIVIERA

LAS VEGAS — After twelve highly successful years on TV, during which time countless Las Vegas offers have been rejected, clown and dead-aim satirist, Sid Caesar, has succumbed to the lure of the Riviera Hotel's new show policy.

The Riviera, in continuing its anti-nude battle, has granted Sid Caesar absolute authority in the writing, production, direction, and music of an original musical-comedy for his nightclub premier, May 2.

Few entertainment personalities of today would be capable of such a task. Caesar is an exception. He is a comedian without a joke file, a laugh-maker without gags. Instead, he has the unparalleled knack of peopling the stage with characters and objects of his own imagination. This creative genius has enabled him to become the master satirist in pantomime and monologue.

Joining the perfectionist of the barbed wit is Ray Anthony and his show, again held over in a special guest star appearance, spotlighting the golden born of Anthony along with six top musicians and song stylists Annita Ray and Diane

FUN IN THE SUN

After 23 Years, He's On Stage

By GEORGE LAINE

For 23 years, George Montgomery has played virtually every kind of dramatic role on film but not until he accepted a starring role in "Two for the Seesaw" for the Ferrall's Playhouse at Deep Well did he appear in "live" theater.

"I've been afraid of it," he said here yesterday. "I've just been scared to death."

HE NEEDN'T HAVE worried since virtually every person who has seen the bronzed Montgomery play the Jerry Ryan role is content that his selection was a stroke of casting genius on the part of the Ferralls.

Montgomery had seen the play in Los Angeles' Civic Theater upon his return from filming his own motion picture — he wrote it, produced it, directed it and starred in it — called "The Steel Hook" in Manila.

"I asked Paul Leavitt if there was a chance the Civic Theater might want to do it again this fall. It's the kind of a play you fall in love with and I did."

WHEN LEAVITT HEARD that the Ferralls were considering "Seesaw" as a closing vehicle for Amy Fields, he told Montgomery and the union was accomplished.

If Montgomery was frightened by the prospect of making his initial stage effort in a two-person play, he was doubly terrified when he learned that he and Miss Fields would have only eight days to get the play up.

"I've never been taxed in movies," Montgomery said. "No one in films ever is."

"You do a five or six page scene and everyone on set stands up and applauds. They think it's phenomenal."

IN "SEESAW," BOTH of the leads must command an inside-out knowledge of a very intricate story line.

"And in movies, you'll have a variety of angles on camera to allow you to breathe or relax. You're in front of the 'camera' — the eye of the audience — all the time in stage work."

His famous wife, Dinah Shore, was initially opposed to his doing the play.

"She asked me what I was trying to prove," Montgomery said. "All she'd ever seen me do was ride up to the saloon, dismount and say 'You're under arrest.' She saw the dress rehearsal Monday and she went away convinced."

MONTGOMERY, SUNNING himself in the grounds of the Deep Well Hotel, sighed perceptibly.

"More important," he said, "I think I've convinced myself."

The play is even greater in its stature to Montgomery now that he has played it. He'll end things on Saturday night in order to be at Dinah's side for a Friar's testimonial Sunday in New York.

When the show ends Saturday, George feels he'll have regrets.

"There are lines in this play that sort of get inside of you," he said. "When Amy says 'twice a week' on the telephone — at the last — it, well . . ."

The wide shoulders went up and came down in a helpless shrug.

Las Floristas

Headdress Ball To Be Presented

Las Floristas 22nd annual Original Floral Headdress Ball, one of the most unusual events of its type in the country and an annual fund-raising springtime dinner dance and parade of floral head-dresses held by Las Floristas, will be seen during a special live KTTV presentation from the Beverly Hilton Hotel, Friday, April 29, 8:30-10 p.m., Channel 11.

Bill Welsh, KTTV director of Special Events, will do the commentary, describing the ornate and dramatic floral head-dress arrangements featured during the parade of the 12 Las Floristas mannequins.

THE THEME OF this year's Las Floristas gala headdress ball is "An Invitation to Dream" and the imagination and talents of a score of well known Southern California floral designers will be reflected in the colorful, dramatic and ornate floral head-dresses created especially to follow the theme. Each floral creation is composed entirely of fresh flowers, and all flowers used for head-dresses and ballroom decoration are donated.

David Wittry has created a mood - to - dream decor around a basic scheme of lime, chartreuse, orange and red. Swirling ethereal mists and the sparkling of myriad glittering prisms from elegant Regency chandeliers will aid the celestial decor. A formal

IN THE SINGLE day, 18-hole best ball foursome, two teams tied with a 55 to win yesterday's match. The first team was made up of John Konevich, Berge Kerkorian, John Cerck, and John Holstein; and the other was Archie Jacobs, Bill Weintraub, Dr. Frank Urbaneck, and A. T. Procopio.

SHOOTING A 58 in yesterday's foursome were two teams, William Wright, Mervin Walker, Haber Erickson and H. E. Erickson; and Bart Prom, H. Coker, Buck Young, and Doovd Barskin.

Today the players continued their best ball two-stroke play and competed again in the best ball foursome for additional prizes.

The tournament will end Saturday night with the presentation of awards at the 3rd annual Indian Wells Pow Wow dinner-dance to be held on the number one fairway at 8:15 p.m.

Palmer Tied With Collins At Houston

Both Card 66s in Classic; Ragan in Trouble, Has 67

HOUSTON, Tex. — (UPI) — Arnold Palmer, the favorite, and Bill Collins led the pack into the second round of the $35,000 Houston Classic golf tournament today, but only because Dave Ragan Jr. had an unusual bit of trouble.

Palmer and Collins carved out first round six-under-par 66's to break in front of the field of 139 golfers, while Ragan and Billy Maxwell of Oceanside, Calif., were right behind with 67's.

Ragan, 24, who plays out of Orlando, Fla., has won only one tournament in his career — the Eastern Open last year. If it hadn't been for tough luck he may have been in front today.

THE BAD BREAK came on the first hole — a 550-yard par five. Ragan was 10 inches away for a par putt, but "fanned" two strokes before tapping the ball in. He was charged with three strokes, and wound up with a double bogey for the hole.

Ragan took his stance, addressed the ball, and started his stroke, then changed his mind and tried to stop the swing, but his reflexes weren't fast enough. It happened the same way again before he finally touched the ball into the cup.

PALMER, the Masters champion from Lionier, Pa., who is far ahead of the money winners this year with $44,257 in the bank, shot a 30-36-66. His front nine score tied the record on this 7,122-yard layout.

Collins, from Crystal River, Fla., birdied the first three holes, the fifth and eighth, three-putted the 10th for his only bogey, and tacked on two more birdies on the back nine.

Jets Go Ahead With L.A. Plans

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The Los Angeles Jets professional basketball team announced Thursday they would proceed with plans to field an American Basketball League (ABL) team even though the Minneapolis Lakers of the National Basketball Association have tied up the Sports Arena.

The Pan-Pacific and Shrine auditoriums will be sounded out as a possible home for the Jets.

Continental Faces Heavy Charges

NEW YORK (UPI) — Continental League President Branch Rickey turned today from the task of gaining approval for a new $15-million stadium in New York City to the job of indemnification required for the new major league's entry into territory now held by minor league clubs.

Estimates of the amount of money demanded by the minor leagues and teams involve range between $2-million and $5 million.

Liston Replaces Patterson as Top Heavy Contender

PROVIDENCE, R. I. (UPI) — The National Boxing Assn. named Sonny Liston top heavyweight contender today but ranked Joey Giardello only fourth among midweight contenders.

Liston's first-round knockout over ex-challenger Roy Harris at Houston, Tex., last Monday boosted him to the number one perch, where he replaced ex-champion Floyd Patterson.

Giardello, who held Gene Fullmer, the NBA middleweight champion, to a draw in their recent title fight at Bozeman, Mont., has been trying to claim the crown; but today's ranking drops the Philadelphia contender not only below champion Fullmer but below Germany's Gustav Scholz, Detroit's Henry Hank and Chicago's Spider Webb.

In the heavyweight division, former champion Patterson gets his contracted June 20 return shot at Ingemar Johansson's crown. However, chairman Tony Petronella of the NBA rating committee made it clear that Liston of Philadelphia is regarded not only as the most dangerous contender but "as the most exciting heavyweight to come to the fore since Rocky Marciano."

McCovey Bat Paces Giants Over L.A. 7-5

Three-Run Homer In Eighth Breaks Up Tight Contest

By FRED DOWN
United Press International
Sweet-swinging Willie McCovey is still playing those game-winning tunes for the San Francisco Giants.

They sang the sophomore blues for the 334-hitting rookie sensation of the National League when he proved something of a bust during spring training but you can take it from the world champion Los Angeles Dodgers that Willie can still "boom 'em."

MCCOVEY DEMONSTRATED that Thursday night when his three-run eighth-inning homer and four runs batted in carried the Giants to a 7-5 victory over the Dodgers and into second-place one-game behind the streaking Pittsburgh Pirates, who chalked up their seventh straight win, 3-0, over the Philadelphia Phillies.

There were no other games in the National League Thursday. McCovey's game-winning blow came off Ed Roebuck, who had just replaced World Series star Larry Sherry after the Giants took a 3-2 lead. A crowd of 33,313 saw Sherry tagged with his third defeat of the year while Jack Sanford won his second game.

THE AMERICAN League champion Chicago White Sox got a heartening pitching effort from Billy Pierce to beat the Cleveland Indians, 3-1, the Kansas City Athletics downed the Detroit Tigers, 2-1, and the Baltimore Orioles scored a 6-1 decision over the Boston Red Sox in American League action.

Palm Springs Ball Players at Yucaipa

Indian and Papoose baseball outfits of Palm Springs High took off this noon for Yucaipa where they will engage the Yucaipa baseballers in a pair of Desert Valley League games.

Both clubs have practically been eliminated from the DVL title race and now have 2-4 standings.

Advertising Discussed for PD Merchants

PALM DESERT — Representatives of the press and radio addressed the meeting of the Retail Merchants Association in Palm Desert last night where members asked questions concerning summer advertising.

Both press and radio answered questions and told the merchants that they would agree to attending any meetings and discussing problems of advertising.

PAUL STILLMAN, advertising salesman of the Desert Sun for the Palm Desert to Cathedral City areas, will speak at the association's meeting at 7:30 p. m., May 10, in the Pink Plum Restaurant where the group usually meets.

Stillman, with approximately 20 years of advertising experience and the newspaper business, will present a talk entitled, "Advertising, Winter and Summer in the Desert Area."

AT PRESENT, members of the association's committees will study various advertising methods for summertime and report at the next meeting, Earcel Ostler, president, disclosed.

The association reported last night that its "Luau-zee" was a huge success and that plans will be started next fall in preparation for another spring event.

Queen's Counsel Visitor in PD

By RUTH STEINER

Noted visitors in the Palm Desert area recently, Stuart Pearl, Q. C. (Queen's Counsel) and Mrs. Pearl of London, England and Litchfield, Ariz., were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. George Pratt at Shadow Mountain Club for dinner, cocktails and dancing to the music of the recently returned duo, Keith White and Renato. Other guests at this table included Vernon King of Los Angeles, who leaves soon for a four month European cruise, and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth F. Morgan of Balboa Island. The Pratts also recently entertained Sherman Oaks visitors Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Thomas, Jr., and daughter, Lynne and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Greenhalgh.

A surprise birthday party was given at the Wallgren home, when Mrs. Mon Wallgren invited a few friends for cocktails to celebrate the ex-Governor's birthday. Later the group enjoyed dinner and dancing at Shadow Mountain Club. Those attending the party were Mr. and Mrs. Herb Shaw, Jr. and Mrs. P. W. Seals and Col. and Mrs. George Townsend.

Recent new, and enthusiastic, property owners are Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence White and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kretschmar, of La Habra, who purchased the "Gates of the Desert" hotel from Mr. and Mrs. George "Skip" Morck. The Morcks will remain in Palm Desert until around June 1, when they will go to Olympia, Wash., for an extended visit with Helen Kay's parents. Their future plans also will take them to Feather River where they are interested in a business venture.

Elsie Minor, well known in the Palm Desert area, spent the week-end visiting at the home of Hazel Kirk on Santa Rosa. Miss Kirk is a sales representative of Rancho Palmaros Estates. Interested desert visitors, Mr. and Mrs. Juel Soboroff of Highland Park, Ill., were shown home sites by Miss Kirk, while the Soboroffs were vacationing at neighboring La Quinta Motel for three weeks.

Two Santa Monica families, who have been vacationing here for the past month, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Redman and Mr. and Mrs. G. I. Smith, were hosted to dinner Tuesday evening at the Joshua Tree Street home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Henderson.

Seen dining at Firecliff Lodge one evening last week were Mr. and Mrs. Archie DeLand hosting Mr. and Mrs. John Leirsch and daughter, Susan, to dinner. The Leirschs, who hail from Vancouver, B. C. Canada, spent a week vacationing at the Gaha Villa. Newcomers, Mr. and Mrs. A. Vander Spek, (he is former Dutch Consul of Seattle, Wash.) will be guests of the DeLands Friday evening at Shadow Mountain Club when they have their monthly new member's cocktail get-acquainted party.

Former well known resident, Ned Bhades, who with his family have resided in Scottsdale, Ariz., for the past few years, has returned to Palm Desert. Bhades and "Doc" Gurley are in the process of building a semi-private golf course on

NO OPPOSITION, SO SUPERVISORS OK ZONE CHANGE

With no one present to speak for or against a proposed zoning change for property on the west side of Marshall Street south of Highway 111 west of Indio, the change was approved by the Board of Supervisors this week following the 10 a.m. hearing.

The zoning change applicant was Macco Corporation of Balboa Island. Their property is presently zoned general residential with a minimum lot frontage of 150 feet and minimum lot area of 22,500 square feet, permitting hotels, apartments and multiple dwelling and professional use.

The new zone will be single residential with a minimum lot frontage of 80 feet and lot area of 9,000 square feet.

Highway 111, between Indio and Palm Desert, near the Shield's Date Gardens. Ned's wife, Dottie and two sons will remain in Scottsdale until around June 1, as the children, Jackie and Jimmie are in school there. Mrs. Fred Blades (Ned's mother) will motor to Scottsdale to spend the next 10 days or two weeks helping the family to pack to move here. The Fred Blades just returned from a week's visit in Los Angeles with Fred's mother, who is 90 years old.

Midweek visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Ray H. Stager, well known here as Mr. Stager was manager of Shadow Mountain Club for several years, and is now associated with the Bow Herbert organization of Gardena.

Mrs. R. Kennedy Hanson, (who, with her husband, own the Palm Desert Shopping Center) is in Pittsburgh, Penn., for an extended time, and while there is locating a smaller apartment, when Mr. Hanson (Bob) will join her later in the summer. While there, Mae will attend a meeting of the Hospital group, of which she is a board member of many years. She is also taking an active part in the Garden Market, located in Garden Center, and is comprised of around 4,000 members made up of 23 Garden Clubs in Pittsburgh. She is the "prize" for the white elephant articles donated by the residents, the money for these items sold going for the upkeep of the full time employees

Around Town

... with Hildy Crawford

Now underway... Indian Wells Country Club's Third Annual Invitational Pow Wow... held its usual Tribal Get-Together... a firewater party on Wednesday night... and tomorrow night will have its Tribal Dinner and dancing under the stars at Lake Bing-Phil... with music by Desi Arnaz orchestra and special entertainment that brings back the colorful Arizona Indian dancers for the third year... Dress will be casual or western... for the crowd that will be following the signal fire blazing on the mountainside... to find the big Pow Wow Party... Of course there will be some Indian costumes too...

It's getting so... party-go-rounders need costumes more than cocktail and dinner clothes... Last night was the Shipwreck Party at Thunderbird... tonight's the big Luau at the Ranch-Club... and tomorrow night the Pow Wow...

Speaking of Luau... it's luau season again and Shadow Mountain Club's big luau is set for Saturday night, May 14... presenting Vince Akina and his South Sea Islanders and a Polynesian Holiday Revue... This is the same night as the Costello's yearly "champagne y trijoles" party at their Clancy Lane rancho (you wear Mexican costumes to that one)...

Desert Air luau... originally scheduled for May 21... has been cancelled... Biggest of the luau (it always draws a thousand or more people)... is being cancelled manager John Noyes said so that they can get an early start on a heavy work schedule at Desert Air this summer... but that it will be held next year... Desert Air is closing May 15...

One of our best known authors... Ralph Hancock... just back from a fast three week trip to Central America (he visited six countries in that period)... has his 25th book coming out next week... It's titled "Puerto Rico" and is a stimulating glimpse of the "operation bootstrap" program which has lifted that country from poverty and despair to a shining example among underdeveloped areas of the world...

Hancock... who made his flying trip to renew his familiarity with Central America... reported that the situation has not changed particularly... that Latin America is still climbing... and still trying for a semblance of the American standard of living... Education is still the big push... Countries where it is lagging are bankrupt like Guatemala... while Pro-American Costa Rica with more school teachers than soldiers... is flourishing... and Mexico where education is high rated... is booming... "We have a better in Latin America today than ever before... because of our attempt to understand"...

Concerning Castro and his effect on Central America... he said the feeling down there is that Castro has let other Latin-American countries down... As a result there is a conservative trend... with revolutionary feelings no longer popular

Here is a prolific author... whose works are easy to read... and who is well-grounded in his subject... having spent 17 years in Central America representing Associated Press and the New York Times... with frequent visits since that time... In 1946 he drove the first four-wheeled vehicle from here to the border of Costa Rica... Hancock says that it is possible now to drive all the way from here to San Juan Costa Rica... and clear to Panama by jeep...

Mrs. Harold Bell Wright will close her home about mid-May... and will go to her San Diego home... just long enough to pack and jet off to Honolulu for the summer...

Beth Scott is here from San Diego for a week's stay at Tennis Club... She tells me that Theodora (Mrs. Thomas) Fleming... formerly of Palm Springs but now of LaJolla... has been signally honored in being named to the board of San Diego Fine Arts Gallery... This is the gallery to which the Irving Snyders of Coronado and Palm Springs have given many fine pieces...

Aline Allison of Cleveland... who has been on an Oriental cruise since February... arrived in Palm Springs early this week... and is a guest of Millie Eisenman at her home on Hermosa Place...

The Joseph Shapiros have gone east to their Park Avenue home... and will weekend in Westhampton during the summer... Mrs. Shapiro is the founder of Toy Clinics Inc... which recently issued a charter to Palm Springs Auxiliary of Angel View Crippled Childrens Foundation...

Dinah Shore's husband George Montgomery (star of screen and television) is appearing in the play... and Dinah would have been here for it... but flew to New York where the Friars are honoring her...

Hair of Every Color to Be Shown at Parade of Fashions

Hair of every color, even lavender, green and pink, and dramatic new hair-dos will mark the Parade of Fashions which Desert Coiffeur Guild, Unit 49, will stage at Palm Springs Riviera Hotel tomorrow night. Costuming will augment their hair styling, and the parade which will cross the Riviera pool on a ramp, will include a Swan, Oriental and Texas Tornado type of hair dress, with a surprise finale. Colored lights will add to the fantasy type show.

Leading hair stylists of California are expected to be here for the affair, including members of the California Cosmetologists Association, who will hold an executive board meeting at La Fonda on Sunday. State secretary Emma Hartwig will be mistress of ceremonies for the Parade.

There is no charge for the show, which will start about 9 p.m., and the public is invited to attend.

Those wishing to do so are also invited to join in the poolside cocktail hour, from seven to eight.

Members of Desert Coiffeur Guild and guests will have a buffet dinner and installation of new officers, between 8 and 9. Don Holler, CCA president, will install the following officers: Orval Paine, president; Ila Mae Collins, 1st vice president; Robert Bedford, 2nd vice president; Charles Carter, 3rd vice president; Margaret Paine, corresponding secretary; Helen Swartzbaugh, recording secretary; Kaye LaRoche, financial secretary and treasurer; Frank LaRoche, parliamentarian.

St. Theresa Plans Hay Ride, Steak Fry on Saturday

The hay ride and steak fry being held by St. Theresa's promises to be a real fun affair according to chairman, Mrs. William Cody and co-chairman, Mrs. Jack Riordan.

The event is scheduled for Saturday, April 30th, and the hayride will leave from the Ranch Club Stables at 6 p.m., for the old polo grounds where Johnny Boyle will be waiting to serve the wagon train revelers.

All interested are invited to attend and reservations may be made by calling Mrs. William Cody at FA 5-2641, or Mrs. Jack Riordan FA 5-7661.

Several Palm Springs friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. The young couple recited their vows in St. Charles Borromeo Church, with Bill Thornton acting as best man for his brother. Around two hundred guests attended the wedding and the reception which followed at Glen Aie Country Club in Sherman Oaks.

The bridegroom is sales coordinator for the Pacific network of CBS and, following their return from an Hawaiian honeymoon, the newlyweds will live in North Hollywood.

Among the wedding guests were Messrs. and Mmes. H. J. Bligh, Sydney Schiff, D. J. Hutchins and A. R. Simons from Palm Springs.

Expert Corrects Fads About Eggs

STILLWATER APD — Eggs are so misunderstood that Oklahoma State University poultryman Sewell Skelton wonders why they don't develop neuroses.

After a four-year survey, Skelton learned of the following concepts — all termed "poppycock" by the poultryman.

—Darker yolk eggs are more nutritious.

—Fertile eggs are more nutritious than non-fertile eggs.

—Egg white has no food value.

—Brown eggs taste different from white eggs.

City of Hope to Hold Annual Donors Dinner

2B The Desert Sun Friday, April 29, 1960

SHIRLEY MILLS, musical comedy personality, will be on the program when City of Hope holds its annual Donors Dinner at El Mirador Sunday night. She was recently featured with Frankie Laine in a Las Vegas engagement.

Oklahoma has 657 high schools, 287 junior high schools and 1,070 elementary schools. In addition there are 22 parochial schools, five Indian schools and two military schools.

L. A. Rotary Honeymoon Party Here

The Golf Committee of the Rotary Club of Los Angeles is sponsoring the 25th "Honeymoon Party" in honor of the Rotary Ann at El Mirador Hotel for three days, beginning today. The host George Worster (president and general manager of the Yellow Cab Company of Los Angeles, Oakland and San Francisco), was the originator of this special annual weekend party given for the Rotary Ann, since the husbands were golfing, dining and playing cards one day and evening during the month. The group usually has around 250 in attendance and on the day of the Farewell Luncheon, Worster awards the prizes for golf, bowling and cards. The prizes are eagerly awaited, as they include such items as TV sets, radios, golf clubs, sterling silver trays. The ladies played golf all day at Bermuda Dunes yesterday, while their husbands played the Thunderbird course, meeting at El Mirador in the evening for the informal Silverado Fiesta.

Some of the desert area residents attending this colorful event were: Rita and George Irvin, Ann and Earl Carpenter, Lorna and Herb Huebner all of Beverly Hills and Palm Springs; Virginia and Jack Gillespie of Palm Desert; Margaret and George Montgomery of 1000 Palms; Dr. Joe and Dorothy Costello of Rancho Mirage and Helen and Ken Kirk of Palm Springs.

Doctors Suggest Doing Dishes Just Once Daily

DENVER (AP) — When the man in your family next complains about stacks of dishes piling up from several meals, you have a ready-made alibi.

It's not just an excuse, but advice from the Colorado Medical Society, telling women to "stack dishes from several meals and do them all at once."

It's a way to avoid rough, red dishpan hands, which the society's doctors claim are a special problem in their high, dry climate.

Advice from the society includes a suggestion that women try to plan things so that their hands are in water for longer periods of time, and out of water for correspondingly longer periods.

When you are finished, oil your hands while they are still wet and wrinkled from the water.

Members who have worked diligently throughout the year to raise their donor funds, will be honored when Palm Springs Chapter of City of Hope holds its annual Donor Dinner at El Mirador Hotel Sunday evening, at 6:30 p. m.

Advance plans indicate that this year's dinner will be a sparkling affair. Mrs. Bess Matloff is in charge and her hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. Gene Burton, Pearl Hess, Raye Gholstein, Marie Horvitz, Zelda Jaffa, Marion Schwartz, Dorothy Slatin and Tillie Rosenbaum.

In addition to dancing to the music of Billy Allen and his Orchestra, there will be the vivacious musical comedy personality, Shirley Mills. She has appeared in many motion pictures, television programs, stage productions and supper clubs all over the country and has recently returned from a Las Vegas engagement, where she was featured with Frankie Lane. With her will be the lyric tenor, Arthur Ross Jones, who has been featured several times at the Hollywood Bowl. He has been associated with the San Francisco Opera Company, and has appeared in numerous concerts, radio, TV and stage productions. The well-known concert pianist, Matilda Barsha, who has performed throughout the country, will be at the piano.

Among the many guests planning to attend are the Honorary President, Mrs. Elsinore Machris, president, Mrs. Fae Brezin Epstein, Regional Director Mrs. Rose Walders, Hon. Mayor and Mrs. Frank Bogert, Rev. and Mrs. Walter H. Reuning, Rabbi and Mrs. Joseph Hurwitz, also Messrs. and Mrs. Jerry Appleby, Sam Abrams, Harry Bernstein, Robert Bernstein, Louis Bogard, Leonard Bock, Saul Broat, Harry Berkenblitt, Charles Brown, Joseph Brown, Ben Bronstein, M. DR. ZECH SPEAKS ON LATIN NATIONS

CHEMICAL STOCKS: THEIR PROMISE... THEIR PITFALLS

Shearson reports on the 1960 outlook for 32 chemical companies...and singles out 5 stocks as buy recommendations.

Why have chemical stocks -- outstanding performers in 1959 -- become market laggards in 1960? Shearson, Hammill has turned up some of the answers to this question in a new report on the chemical industry which tells you about the nation's leading chemical producers, their past records and future prospects.

As a whole, chemical sales for the first quarter of 1960 were good...but below the high levels established in the last half of 1959. The threat of excess capacity is once again facing parts of the industry, particularly in certain inorganic lines. On the other hand, an increasing demand for certain plastics, organic chemicals and other products still in strong demand has brought about the highest capital outlays in the industry's history for new plants and equipment. Overcapacity, expansion costs and new plant start-up expenses naturally create an earnings drag, even with existing strong markets for many chemicals. Also, most chemical stocks are priced high in relation to company earnings. These factors make Shearson believe that the majority of chemical issues will be relatively dull performers in the months to come, and that they could be hit hard in the event of any downturn in general business activity.

Shearson's new report gives you a penetrating look at the entire chemical industry and contrasts its immediate and long term potential. It includes earnings records for the past three years of thirty-two important chemical producers, together with forecasts of each company's 1960 expectations. Only five companies are singled out as likely prospects for sizeable earnings gains this year, including three large diversified producers and two smaller specialty chemical companies. For the names of Shearson's buy recommendations...and a full report on the chemical industry's overall outlook, simply fill out and return the coupon below.

SANDPIPER

Vacationers Augment 'Regulars'

Vacations added to the season regulars at the Sandpiper own-your-own apartments in Palm Desert where nearly every cottage was filled with owners, guests or friends.

From Studio City, Mrs. Beatrice Durfee had as her guests her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lislie Wright while Mr. and Mrs. Amos Bomburger had their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bomburger with their children. The Bomburgers are from Modesto.

Busiest host for the week was probably Mrs. Herbert Kohlbusch and her husband who entertained a near cottage - full of happy grandchildren. On hand were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Verheyen, Jr., and their three children, Carl III, Carolyn, and Kenneth, all from Encino. From Northridge were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Koeller and children, Mike, and Dennis. On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Copes with their youngsters, Christine, Dianne, Linda and Billy joined the festivities.

From Orange County, Lumberman Gil Ward and wife entertained Mr. Ward's secretary, Mrs. Helen Frank and her friend, Mrs. Marilyn Franklin.

From nearby Cathedral City, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Carson enjoyed the hospitality of the picturesque Everett Johnson cottage. The Johnsons are from Vista where Mr. Johnson is a prominent avocado grower.

The Chinese patio garden of Carrolls are from Toluca Lake. the setting for a visit from their attractive daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Carroll with their boys, John and Jeffery. The Carrolls are from Toluca Lake.

Sandpiper newcomers, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Gудie had a family Easter with Mrs. Gудie's mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Henger of Pasadena, both enjoying their stay at the famous desert apartments.

The Hastings Garlands, absent from their cottage for several weeks, have returned and will stay over during the enjoyable long-season ahead. Mrs. Garland plans to entertain her San Diego bridge club at her apartment sometime in the coming perfect-weather weeks.

Three Injured In Area Crash

INDIO — Three Arizona residents were injured in a two car collision at the junction of Highway 111 and 195 near here at approximately 10:20 p.m., yesterday, the California Highway Patrol reported.

Driver number one, Patricia Ann Rowan, 20, of Phoenix, began a left-turn and pulled back to the right, colliding with a car driven by Harold Louis Ingerson, 29, of Yuma, the patrol said. Miss Rowan was cited for an unsafe turn, and Ingerson was cited for following too closely, the patrol said.
